JOB TITLE: YOUTH DEVELOPMENT (BEFORE & AFTER SCHOOL) SPECIAL NEEDS TEACHER

RESPONSIBILITIES

This position is responsible for planning and implementing an after school program for children with disabilities. This program is a pilot and will determine how future programs run. Specific students are yet to be determined, so the individual must be willing to accommodate any child's needs. Adequate training will be provided from the school district and other organizations, but this person should have the ability to take on a challenge and adjust accordingly. This teacher is responsible for planning activities, serving meals, communicating with the families and other personnel in the child's life, and carrying out the objectives of the pilot program. This person will need to be knowledgeable of DCFS regulations.

JOB REQUIREMENTS
